NAPERVILLE

Welcome to Naperville!

Welcome to Naperville, the perfect destination to shop, dine, play, and stay. Whatever experience you're looking for in 2023, Naperville is the city for you. This year's cover features Wentz Concert Hall at North Central College.

Finding the perfect hotel is a snap thanks to our detailed hotel listings. From full-service to extended stay and everything in-between, Naperville has accommodations for every guest and every occasion. Whether you're looking for a cozy get-away or a luxurious vacation destination, Naperville hotels have the amenities for you. Naperville is also home to over 300 restaurants, making it a prime location for foodies. You'll find fun, fancy, and family-friendly eats across the city.

You can shop until you drop at one of the many shopping districts, which offer a mix of locally owned boutiques and nationally recognized shops you know and love. Head west where the Route 59 and the Ogden Avenue corridors are brimming with incredible restaurants, salons, shops, and much more. You can shop, dine, and play with ease since parking is free throughout the city!

Let the 2023 Visitors Guide help you plan your next experience in Naperville. You can contact the Naperville Convention & Visitors Bureau for more information on planning your visit in Naperville!

Naperville's Fine & Performing Arts District For Dinner and a Show

Wentz Concert Hall / Madden Theatre

Wentz Concert Hall is a world-class, 605-seat concert hall designed to create an intimate feel-yet crafted to provide the superior clarity, warmth and liveliness of sound that are essential to enjoy music of all genres. The room's incredible acoustics have been described by the Chicago Tribune as an "extraordinary space."

As a black box theatre, the Bartley and Maricela Madden Theatre brings together actors and audience up close and personal with its flexible seating and staging configurations. An ideal setting for experimental theatrical performances, film screenings, jazz and dance performances, and lectures.

Pfeiffer Hall

A magnet for the arts in the western suburbs since 1926, Pfeiffer Hall features a 1,057-seat auditorium with main-floor seating for 588 and balcony seating for 469. The DuPage Symphony Orchestra and Naperville-North Central College Performing Arts Association called it home for decades, as have numerous community arts groups, schools, churches, and the College's musical and theatrical programs.

Meiley-Swallow Hall

Meiley-Swallow Hall features a 240-seat theatre ideal for intimate musical and theatrical productions. The traditional thrust stage also provides a popular setting for author appearances, film screenings and lectures.

NAPERVILLE RIVERWALK

Downtown Naperville
630.848.5000

www.NapervilleParks.org

Enjoy miles of walkway on the Naperville Riverwalk. The Riverwalk was built by residents in 1981 to commemorate Naperville's 150th Anniversary. It follows the DuPage River through Downtown Naperville and features covered bridges, gazebos and playgrounds. You will find monuments with the names of Naperville's old farm families, as well as the distinctive shepherd's crook light poles, sculptures and flowers along the paths. (www.NapervilleRiverwalk.com)

Adjacent to the Riverwalk is a former quarry known today as Centennial Beach. Naperville's historic beach has been enjoyed by residents and visitors alike since 1931. Amenities include space for picnicking, zero-depth water entry up to depths of 15', a sand beach, water play features, diving board, slide, sand volleyball courts and concession stand. Centennial Beach is open from Memorial Day to Labor Day with daily and season passes available. (www.CentennialBeach.org) If you are not looking to get wet, enjoy the Paddleboat Quarry and Fishing Pier along the Riverwalk. The Paddleboat Quarry is open all non-school days, spring through fall.

Paddleboats can be rented for 20 or 40 minute rides. (NapervilleParks.org)

Rotary Hill is the site of many special events year-round, such as the Last Fling and Millennium Carillon concerts. The hill is also popular in the winter months as a favorite sledding spot or in the warmer months to lay on a blanket or have a picnic. The Millennium Carillon is located at the base of Rotary Hill and was built to celebrate the arrival of the third millennium. Rising 153 feet above the Riverwalk, it is one of only nine carillons world-wide spanning a full six octaves. Experience a guided tour to see the inside of this magnificent instrument and catch a beautiful view of the City. Music selections are played automatically on the bells, see website for upcoming times and information. (www.Naperville-Carillon.org)

The Riverwalk Amphitheater offers free programs, community events and performances and is also popular rentable space for outdoor weddings. Along the Amphitheater, the new Millennium Wall features inscriptions on bronze plaques commemorating donors. Fredenhagen Park is a gateway to the east extension of the Riverwalk. The park was named in honor of Walter and Grace Fredenhagen by their children. The Exchange Club Memories Fountain is surrounded by commemorative bricks and stones with messages, including personal milestones, celebration of loved ones and even invitations of marriage. Enjoy the park benches, canopied picnic tables, gazebo and covered bridge in this picturesque park along the Riverwalk. The Shanower Memorial is inspired by Naval Commander Dan Shanower, a Naperville native who died in the September 11, 2001 attack on America. Dedicated on September 11, 2003, the memorial is nestled between the DuPage River and the Municipal Center along the Riverwalk.

DUPAGE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

301 N. Washington Street, 630.637.8000

DupageChildrens.org

The DuPage Children's Museum offers over 150 hands-on exhibits located in a unique three-story discovery center specially made to house engaging family activities. The museum has learning neighborhoods where children can splash, construct, build, create, and play. Children can discover light and shadows, learn the principles of physics, construct their first creation, or create an artistic masterpiece, all in museum designed especially for them. Even the smallest can learn about their world in any of the Young Explorers areas, special locations for children 24 months and younger. Along with its permanent exhibits, the museum is home to The Questioners, a traveling exhibit created at the DuPage Children's Museum to bring to life the world and characters of the beloved children's books. Follow all the Questioners through their adventures in engineering, illustration, science, and more. Make sure to visit before the exhibit takes to the road, and tours other neighboring museums and locations! Check out the event listings to see what special events are coming to the Children's Museum this year. The museum is open 7 days a week year-round, except for the first two weeks of September. Visit the award-winning DuPage Children's Museum today!

NAPER SETTLEMENT

523 S. Webster Street, 630.420.6010

NaperSettlement.org

Naper Settlement is Chicagoland's outdoor history museum, capturing the story of 19th century life in northern Illinois. Located just steps from downtown Naperville, the museum offers tours of historic buildings, interpreters in period clothing, and special events and programming both on and off-site. Naper Settlement has more than 40,000 historic objects and archival materials, over 10,000 photographs related to local history and a research library. Wedding services, meeting rentals, parties, lectures and educational programs are additional offerings year round. Caroline Martin Mitchell laid the groundwork for Naper Settlement by donating her family's Victorian mansion and surrounding 212 acres to the City of Naperville in 1936. Today, her home has been brought back to its original Victorian splendor and is open to visitors. Check out the events section of this Visitors Guide for a listing of special events year-round at Naper Settlement.
